Hearing God's Word

Psalm 116

An Offering of Thanksgiving

On Thanksgiving morning we will hear a psalm sung at a thanksgiving offering, one of the types of offerings an Israelite could bring to God. The psalmist is full of gratitude for the salvation of God and wonders how he could possibly repay the Lord. He testifies to the goodness of God, and that's what we will do as well, during our Thanksgiving service.

Responding as God Sends us into His World

COUNTDOWN TO CHRISTMAS

You are invited for a very special night at First Christian Reformed Church of Bellflower on Wednesday, December 13th. Come and prepare your heart for Christmas with the sights, sounds, and tastes of the coming season of Hope, Peace, Joy, Love and Christ. Community family and friends are welcome for dinner, desserts, games for all ages, singing and a very special performance from the Valley Christian Praise Dance Group.

DISCOVER BELL-ONE

In mid-December Pastor Zach will be leading a class after church to help people curious about our church and interested in membership to get to know who we are. We will talk about the history of our congregation and denomination, as well as our Reformed theology and current ministry aims. There will be opportunity to get to know our leaders and to join the church at the end of the class. If you are interested, please sign up at the welcome counter in the foyer, or connect with Pastor Zach by email, phone, or in person.
